The Dumbarton Oaks Papers were founded in 1941 for the publication of articles relating to late antique, early medieval, and Byzantine civilization in the fields of art and architecture, history, archaeology, literature, theology, law, and the auxiliary disciplines. Articles should be submitted normally in English or French. Preference is given to articles of substantial length, but shorter notes will be considered if they relate to objects in the Dumbarton Oaks collections. Articles for submission should be prepared according to the submission guide, style guide, and list of abbreviations posted on the Dumbarton Oaks website, <http://www.doaks.org/>, and sent to the Director of Byzantine Studies, Dumbarton Oaks, 1703 32nd St., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20007.

Dumbarton Oaks Papers is published annually. Current and previous issues may be ordered online at <http://www.hup.harvard.edu/>. Standing orders may be placed by contacting customer service at 800-405-1619 or customer.care@trilateral.org.

Volumes 1–59 of Dumbarton Oaks Papers are available in digital form through JSTOR; volumes 53–57 are also available at no charge through the Dumbarton Oaks website at <http://www.doaks.org/etexts.html>.
