that we recognize our position as beneficiaries of his legacy, not limited to the History of Vatican II and the presence of Fondazione per le Scienze Religiose, a world-class research center in Bologna that he led with distinction. We would therefore like to dedicate this volume to the memory of Giuseppe Alberigo.

We gratefully acknowledge the work and expertise of the scholars who contributed to this volume. We also thank Robert Maryks (New York) for his careful editing of the English texts. F.W.O.-Vlaanderen offered financial support in addition to Margaret Grace's generosity and made the 2005 colloquium of Mechelen, Leuven and Louvain-la-Neuve an anniversary to remember. Finally, we extend our appreciation to the Editorial Board of Bibliotheca Ephemeridum Theologicarum Lovaniensium for the honour in accepting this volume in its prestigious series.
