ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The editors would like to express their gratitude and appreciation to the municipality of Deventer and the innumerable collaborators and volunteers who—together with the Centre for Cusanus Studies in Nijmegen—have made the celebration of Cusanus' 600th birthday a memorable manifestation. This manifestation and the Publication of the texts was not possible without the support of the Radboud-Foundation. In particular, we would like to thank Professor Frans Maas (Radboud-Chair of the University of Utrecht) who generously supported the conference. Further on we want to thank the Stichting Wesseling van Breemen, which has materially supported the editorial work, and Clemens Hogenstijn who encouraged the initiative to publish the texts of the conference. Thanks also to professor Arjo Vanderjagt for the publication in the series Brill Studies in Intellectual History, and for his constructive cooperation in the preparations for the conference that gave rise to this publication. Ms Hai Huong Le and Ms Riny Rijn- ders also deserve our warmest gratitude for their intensive work on the manuscript.

Nijmegen, Inigo Bocken
